The voices you choose to listen to including your own become the loudest ones in your story.

Activity Time!

Take some time to write down three values that are non-negotiable for you in anything you do.

Write them on sticky notes and stick them on your shirt.

Then, take another minute to discuss your values with someone else in the room.

Hint: For reference, some values could be accountability, ambition, authenticity, compassion, courage, creativity, curiosity, dependability, empathy, excellence, fairness, forgiveness, gratitude, honesty, humility, integrity, kindness, loyalty, open-mindedness, perseverance, respect, responsibility, teamwork, trustworthiness.
