Brand: Khadi India

Category: Hair Care

Why we have chosen this brand

We chose Khadi India with a specific focus on their line of hair care products, with the idea to expand to their other products once it has gained a market here in Canada. They use 100% Ayurvedic formulations, natural & herbal ingredients, that are chemical free and dermatologically verified, which is all specified on their website at the bottom of the page. This in today's market is highly sought after, as it has become something that people are more conscious about.

There is a big market in Canada for immigrants who struggle with hair loss due to the water in Canada being primarily hard water, due to high levels of calcium and magnesium, because of this a lot of immigrants have noticed hair loss since moving to Canada, with there being a lot of discussions online, especially on places like reddit, Quora and even youtube.

There is a large population of Asian immigrants, like Indians, who would love to utilise these products. Especially because they trust the brand already and are aware how good the hair products are, due to the clean ingredients and minimal processing. Nearly 60% of Gen Z buys only eco-friendly products, and attributes like cruelty-free, vegan, and sustainable packaging are outpacing overall category growth. With these growing preferences, even Canadians would love to explore a brand like Khadi India.

We feel Khadi India is a high potential brand, and with the increasing need for sustainable products, there is a strong possibility that Khadi India would be successful in Canada. According to Consumer Trends and Behaviours by the Government of Canada, 8 in 10 people value a sustainable lifestyle, and 65% feel they have a moral obligation to use environmentally friendly products. Additionally, as per recent Statista data from February 2025, the demand for natural and organic hair care products in Canada has been steadily increasing, reflecting the country's strong emphasis on sustainability and eco-friendly practices and according to market research by Industry Today as of November 2025, the Canada Hair Care Market is expected to grow at a 4.42% CAGR, driven by the rising preference for natural

formulations. Overall, there is a growing need and acceptance for brands like Khadi India, which use natural formulations in their products, are completely organic, safe for use, and environmentally friendly.

Personas for potential customers

Persona 1

Category	Detail
Basic Info	Name: Tira Roy
	Age: Late 20s (e.g.,28)
	Gender: Female
Status	Immigrant (Recently arrived in Canada, 6-18 months ago)
Primary Goal (Hair)	Improve Hair Quality & Maintain Hair Health

Specifically: Stop or reduce hair loss attributed to the change in environment/Canada's hard water.

Pain Point: Her hair has become noticeably dull, dry, and brittle since moving, and she's seeing more hair fall than normal.

Values

Efficacy & Results: Needs products that work and show noticeable improvement, not just trendy options.

Authenticity & Natural Ingredients: Prefers clean ingredients, is wary of harsh chemicals, and may look for ingredients common in her home country's traditional remedies.

Interests

DIY/Natural Remedies: Enjoys researching and trying home remedies (e.g., oiling, rinses).

Cultural Exchange: Interested in beauty/wellness hacks and products that are popular among local communities, but also sharing her own cultural beauty practices.

Career/Skill Development: Focused on settling her professional life, so hair care needs to be efficient.

Attitudes

Proactive & Determined: She sees the hard water issue as a problem she can solve with the right knowledge and tools.

Skeptical of High-End Marketing: Doesn't automatically trust expensive salon brands; relies more on peer reviews and ingredient lists.

Long-Term Mindset: Seeks sustainable routine changes rather than quick fixes.

Lifestyle

Urban/Suburban Renter: Likely living in an older building with typical plumbing (where hard water issues are common).

Busy Schedule: Balancing a new job/studies/settling in, so she needs a routine that is effective but not overly time-consuming (e.g., 30-minute treatments are fine, but not a 2-hour daily ritual).

In-Depth Research: Spends time online looking up solutions specific to "hard water hair loss Canada."

Persona 2

Category	Detail
Basic Info	Name: Willow Hayes
	Age: Early 30s (e.g., 32)
	Gender: Female
Status	Canadian-Born
Primary Goal (Hair)	Explore & Integrate New Holistic Options

Specifically: Transition from conventional products to a purely herbal and holistic hair care regimen (shampoos, treatments, tools).

Pain Point: Not suffering from a specific disaster, but is feeling "product fatigue" and a desire to align her hair care with her overall sustainable/wellness values.

Values

Sustainability & Ethics: Prioritizes products that are cruelty-free, locally sourced (ideally Canadian ingredients/companies), and packaged with minimal waste.

Purity & Minimalism: Believes "less is more" and seeks routines with high-quality, recognizable natural ingredients.

Ritual & Self-Care: Values the process of hair care as a relaxing, therapeutic ritual.

Interests

Herbalism & Ethnobotany: Fascinated by traditional uses of Canadian plants (e.g., cedar, birch, Labrador tea) in wellness.

Holistic Wellness: Active in yoga, meditation, and natural foods communities.

Small Business Support: Prefers buying from local artisans, farmers' markets, or small-batch Canadian producers.

Attitudes

Experimental: Willing to try "non-traditional" methods (e.g., co-washing, soap bars, herbal infusions) even if they take time to adjust to.

Informed Consumer: Reads ingredient labels meticulously and understands the difference between 'natural-inspired' and truly natural/organic.

Patient: Understands that natural methods may take longer to show results and is committed to the long-term shift.

Lifestyle

Flexible Schedule/Self-Employed: Has more time available to dedicate to hands-on preparation (e.g., making her own herbal rinses) and longer treatment times.

Health-Focused Cook: Likely to incorporate ingredients like eggs, avocado, and coconut oil from her kitchen into hair masks.

Conscious Spending: Willing to pay a premium for high-quality, ethically-sourced, handcrafted products.

Canadian Agencies

Agency	Expertise	Rationale / Strategic Value
Business Development Bank of Canada (BDC)	Financing, growth advisory, e-commerce and digital strategy support for SMEs	BDC is a crown-corporation focused on helping small and medium businesses scale in Canada. They offer financing (working capital, loans) and advisory services covering sales & marketing, e-commerce, digital adoption - which is critical if our brand is launching online and needs financing and strategic support. (ISED Canada) Moreover, BDC has supported tens of thousands of SMEs and is experienced in guiding businesses through initial growth and expansion stages. (ISED Canada)
Magnolia Marketing Communications (Magnolia MC)	Magnolia Marketing Communications (Magnolia MC) can support in building Khadi India's public image in Canada by helping shape a strong narrative around Ayurvedic, natural, and sustainable beauty.	Magnolia MC would be a strong partner for us because they can support our overall PR needs while also helping us build a trustworthy presence in Canada. They also have PR Packages for Businesses of All Sizes which makes it accessible as an agency in the beginning stages of the product launch as well. Since they have experience working with the Public sector PR campaigns , they already understand how to market government-linked organizations, which is especially useful because Khadi India operates under the Government of India. Their Canadian market understanding and local office make it easier for them to create messaging that resonates here. In addition to consumer PR, they also have solid B2B capabilities, which can be utilised for us as we plan to approach businesses that may want to purchase in bulk.

LG2 (creative + full-service marketing agency)	Brand building, creative direction, integrated marketing campaign (advertising, digital, content)	As a large independent creative agency in Canada, LG2 offers “full creative services”: branding, advertising, digital, design, content - everything needed to build a compelling brand identity and reach. (30 Best) For a brand like ours (natural / beauty / lifestyle), having a strong, well-designed brand narrative and high-quality visual & creative execution is crucial; LG2 has a track record for big campaigns for major brands across Canada. (Oneway Agency)
Ethnicity Matters	Ethnicity Matters can support Khadi India with market research and consumer insights discovery. Specially in understanding diverse immigrants, newcomers, and multicultural consumers in Canada. This	Ethnicity Matters is a great choice for Khadi India's market research and consumer understanding because their approach is inherently solution agnostic , ensuring strategies are not just limited to media alone. Allowing the scope for more holistic type of proposals and view the brand from a broader perspective rather than just through a media lens and they are based in Toronto, which is a multicultural hub. They bring over two decades of experience and specialize in multicultural brands and languages, making

	includes quantitative research using online ethnic panels. qualitative research such as ethnographic inspiration sessions, and global benchmarking. The insights will also ensure that Khadi India stays connected to the latest needs, preferences, and expectations of customers in the Canadian market.	them an ideal partner for reaching Canada's diverse audiences.

Key messages for the product launch

1. “Ayurvedic hair care that restores what hard water damages.”

Market Segment Connection: Immigrants experiencing hair loss due to Canada's hard water.

Why it aligns:

- Directly addresses one of the biggest pain points the segment faces: hair fall, dryness, and breakage caused by high calcium and magnesium in Canadian tap water.
- Positions Khadi India as a trusted solution, using herbal, gentle, restorative formulas designed to strengthen and repair hair.
- Shows that the brand understands the lived experience of newcomers and offers culturally familiar, effective alternatives.

Purpose: Solves a real problem and creates emotional relevance.

2. “Organic, Vegan, and Chemical-Free - Clean Haircare That Matches Canada’s Values.”

Market Segment Connection: Eco-conscious Canadians, wellness-oriented millennials & Gen Z.

Why it aligns:

- Canadians increasingly prefer clean, ethical, sustainable hair care, and Khadi India’s formulas match this demand perfectly.
- Emphasizes the brand’s strengths: organic ingredients, vegan formulas, sustainable production, SLS- and paraben-free.
- This message demonstrates that Khadi isn’t just for the diaspora - it fits mainstream Canadian values around health, environmental impact, and responsible consumption.

Purpose: Builds trust and broadens appeal beyond cultural familiarity.

3. “Trusted in India, Now in Canada - Herbal Haircare Made for a Global Community.”

Market Segment Connection: Indian diaspora + multicultural consumers familiar with Ayurveda.

Why it aligns:

- Many Indian immigrants already know Khadi India, trust it, and cannot access it in Canada.
- Launching this line locally answers a clear unmet need, giving diaspora consumers access to their preferred daily-use products.
- Also appeals to Canada's diverse population who are increasingly open to Ayurvedic and herbal beauty traditions.

Purpose: Leverages existing brand loyalty and cultural credibility to create immediate demand.

Campaign elements

1. Social Media (TikTok & Instagram)

Women aged 18-35, are extremely likely to be active on TikTok and Instagram, so positioning ads on those platforms under tags like: hair care routines and herbal & Holistic hair care, will draw in the right demographic.

Eco-conscious Millennials and Gen Z are most reachable here; they follow trends in clean beauty, vegan hair products, and natural routines.

Indian diaspora communities actively use Instagram to follow beauty influencers who review Indian products.

Why it fits the brand:

- Khadi India is highly visual: herbal ingredients, before/after results, application videos.
- These platforms allow the brand to showcase its natural, Ayurvedic identity through short-form content and influencer partnerships.
- Organic + aesthetic storytelling will influence the target demographic to buy the products.

Message fit:

- Ideal for the message: “Organic, Vegan, and Chemical-Free - Clean Hair Care That Matches Canada’s Values.”
- Can demonstrate results visually (shine, reduced frizz, growth, strength).

2. In-Store Placement + Pop-Up Sampling in South Asian Grocery Stores & Beauty Supply Shops

Why it’s effective for the target segments:

- Indian immigrants and newcomers shop frequently at cultural grocery stores and already purchase familiar Ayurvedic or herbal beauty products there.
- Many rely on physical stores for trusted hair oils, shampoos, and herbal powders.
- This is the fastest way to reach customers who already know Khadi or trust Indian brands.

Why it fits the brand:

- Khadi India is built on heritage, tradition, and natural authenticity - being placed in cultural, community-rooted stores strengthens brand credibility.
- Pop-up sampling allows newcomers to touch, smell, and test the herbal formulas, which increases conversion.

Message fit:

- Ideal for the message: “Trusted in India, Now in Canada - Herbal Haircare Made for a Global Community.”

3. Reddit Promoted Posts and Community Engagement

Why it’s effective for the target segments

- Many immigrants in Canada use Reddit to discuss issues like hard-water hair loss, especially in subreddits such as r/AskTO and r/NoStupidQuestions
- Users actively seek advice and product recommendations, making it an ideal platform to reach people already searching for solutions.
- Reddit communities are highly engaged and trust peer-to-peer experiences, which aligns well with newcomers looking for familiar and effective hair care options.

Why it fits the brand

- Khadi India benefits from educational, discussion-based spaces where Ayurvedic ingredients and natural remedies can be explained in depth.
- The platform's transparent, conversation-driven environment supports the brand's authenticity and helps build credibility among users who value honest reviews.

Message fit

Ideal for: “Ayurvedic hair care that restores what hard water damages.”

- This channel allows the brand to directly address an existing community concern and position itself as a trusted, natural solution.
